ANNIVERSARY OF THE ELAPSE OF 84 YEARS SINCE THE FOUNDING OF THE SOVIET COMMUNIST PARTY.

APH.JULY.29.41A.

Tomorrow, Thursday the 30th of July, marks the elapse of 84 years, ever since the founding of the Soviet Communist Party, by Lenin in 1903, under the name of the Russian Democratic Socialist Party.

Lenin deemed necessary the organisation of the two Political Revolution and the creation of a Revolutionary Organisation to lead Political events, and control the revolutionary and historic initiative.

Proceeding from this point, he realised that the Working Class needs a Central Newspaper/as the Organ of Revolutionary Workers. Hence, he published (Alaiskra) Newspaper under the motto:(Out of the blaze, flames outbreak).

As such, the Newspaper was transformed into a rhetoric Inducive Orator Advocate and Collective Organiser. It played a very considerable role in organising the Revolutionary Workers Movement and rendered on its pages the Party Draft Programme for discussion and which was adopted by the 2nd Party Congress held in Brussels on 30th July, 1903.

Lenin insisted that the Party should be a Revolutionary Party, through which the Revolution can execute its tasks on receipt of Power and for the construction of a socialist society. Thus, in 1904 he issued his book entitled:- (One step Forwards and Two steps Backwards) in which he has developed Marx teachings pertaining to the bases and principles of the Party Organisational Constructions. Ever since its founding, the Soviet Communist Party has been enhancing its influences in the different sides of social life by rallying its lines with the best representatives of the Working Class, Cooperative, Intellectuals and workers in sectors which ensure the acceleration of scientific technical progress out of specialists in the manufacture of new equipments, erection of advanced technology and its approved established so, the number of staff and Employers increased gradually within the Party, through the recent years, so much that about three quarters of this category are from amongst Engineers, specialised Experts, agriculturalists, teachers, Doctors and Scientists in the field of science, knowledge, Literature and arts.

At the beginning of this year, proportion of Youth members, reached upto 17.6% women 20.0% higher studies Graduates 31.8.

Workers and Peasants constitute the majority at 56.0% of nearly of 8 million members representatives of the different nationalities.

The Soviet Communist Party accepts within its ranks only citizens of high characteristics from the view point of their political ripeness, work and morals and who have proved sincere and ready to devote totally themselves for the construction of new society. The Party cares over of purity of its ranks and hence made a strong blockade against opportunists and purposeful element s who attempt to infiltrate into it for realising their objectives. The Party is of deep concern to enhance its ranks, lift up its status, get rid of those who violate its standing orders and distort its reputation. In recent years, Party Organisations have stressed upon the necessity of urging their Members to abide by Party discipline and State Laws. They have intensified strictness on those who contravene organisational rules.

Proceeding from that, the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party in its latest meetings, dealt with the standard of running economy, Administration and the errors committed and took in this respect a number of Resolutions aimed at the reconstruction of the Countrys economy.

The most significant resolution has been the holding of the Party conference for the whole Soviet Union, on next June, 1988, for the discussion of procedures of execution Resolutions passed by the 27th Congress of the Soviet Communist Party and the Basic conclusions of the first half of the Five Year Plan 1986/1990, with the aim of deepening construction in addition to the measures to be taken for continuation of spreading democracy in the life of the Party and society.

Ever since its founding, the Soviet Communist PArty, has been realising successes in the construction of the Socialist society and improvement of the life of Soviet Citizens.

The Soviet Union possesses by now a huge scientific cultural and military efficiency which extended and will keep on extending constantly international integral support to National Liberation States and assistance for themselves to realise social progress and liberation from all types of imperialist subordination, in all fields.

The soviet successes as well which have been realised throughout the past years, has made out of the Soviet Union a gigantic and decisive force for the preservation of world peace. Therefore, international imperialism topped by American Imperialism can no more threaten peace, security and stability all over the world.

Our Party is tied by close relations of friendship with the Soviet Communist Party, whereby our Party participant delegation in the 27th Congress of the Soviet Communist Party, has pointed out that the Party, its leadership and innovative attitude towards issues placed before the Soviet People and humanity on all universe, constitute a new strong push to the struggle of peoples for the sake of peace and an inspiring specimen to progressive struggling forces for the sake of democracy and socialism.

On the other hand, the Soviet Communist Party participant delegation in our Party General Conference, has expressed satisfaction with the establishment of relations of friendship between both parties and underlined that these relations lay down a firm foundation for comprehensive cooperation of excellent future scopes between the Soviet Union and Democratic Yemen.
